

THE PROBLEM OF THE PUBLIC TRANSPARENCY OF PLAGIARISM

Dobromir Pressyanov

Abstract

The problem of public enlightening on the evidence of plagiarism is considered. The attempts to hide the facts and evidence and to skip this point by the academic bodies and representatives are discussed. A concern that such policy makes the effective prevention of the plagiarism impossible is raised. While considering the prevention of the plagiarism as the principal strategy of public pressure, the author believes that ensuring public enlightening and transparency of any evident case of plagiarism has sufficient potential for prevention.
